If you purchase your own airline tickets, you are responsible for connecting with the group in Israel and usually for your own transportation from the airport to the hotel and back again to the airport.

A group ticket is just that—upgrading is not usually possible once the group ticket is purchased or at least is much more expensive than purchasing your own upgrade.

If you have any physical challenges that make it difficult to walk distances, up inclines, climb stairs, carry luggage, ride escalators, or ride in a wheel chair, etc, you will need to travel with a companion who can assist you. Also please notify us of any physical conditions that might affect you while traveling.
